USAFRICOM Theater Strategy

Affordable Insurance and Investment for America

Problem Statement

Fragility of African states, exacerbated by climate change, presents challenges to U.S. national interests and threatens a free, open, and stable international order.

USAFRICOM must reduce risks to U.S. national interests with focused application of limited resources.

Theory of Success to address the problem...

USAFRICOM will maximize U.S. global advantage through moderate investment by campaigning in Africa to:

- 3) Prevent strategic distraction of national command authorities and other Combatant Commands.

We operate by, with, and through Allies & partners

- Ensuring strategic access and denying competitors the benefits of exclusive influence in key geographic locations to support crisis response and contingency plan execution;
- Countering threats, to include in the grey zone, with the use of force or credible threat of force in, from, and through Africa; and
- Shaping the environment in support of regional stability and security by exploiting opportunities, decreasing the likelihood of unfavorable high impact events, responding to crises, and supporting climate resilience.

J58 SECURITY COOPERATION (SC): Campaign Responsiveness

As a command with few assigned forces and distinct authorities, USAFRICOM relies heavily on Security Cooperation activities and resources more than any other Geographic Combatant Command (GCC). SC activities are LONG-TERM investments critical to expand the scope and reach of USAFRICOM's influence and presence in Africa, while countering the actions and ambitions of China and Russia on the continent.

The M2M Program is the Commander's most flexible and responsive security cooperation program for conducting bilateral or multilateral engagements on the continent. The program is a proven method of engaging at low costs with high returns targeted at country focused short duration and small footprint engagements.

International Military Education & Training (IMET)

J58 Security Cooperation Programs Division

Program Objective: T22 DoS program funds military education and training courses for partner nation military and select civilian personnel.

Mission:

- IMET continues to be one of the Command's most important long-term engagement tools to build relationships with future military leaders and to cultivate knowledge and expertise in African defense institutions.
- The trusted relationships built with future senior leaders through the IMET program provide an invaluable tool in accomplishing the Command's strategic objectives throughout the AOR.

Key Facts & Figures:

- FY24 baseline IMET appropriation level for AFRICOM countries is projected to total $23.4M, allowing 520 students to train in CONUS.
- Top 5 recipient countries: Tunisia ($2.3M), Morocco ($2M), Algeria ($1.3M), Kenya($1.1M), and Nigeria($1M).
- AFRICOM countries annually receive ~40 senior-level Invitational PME slots (i.e. NDU) and 55 mid-level slots (i.e. Army CGSC)
- AFRICOM absorbs "bonus" funds when DoS annually redistributes current and prior year global unused IMET money.
- In FY23, AFRICOM received $6M in "bonus" IMET funding and expects a similar amount for FY24.

Regional Defense Fellowship Program (RDFP)

J58 Security Cooperation Programs Division

Program Objective: Title 10 Section 345 DoD program educates and trains mid- and senior-level partner defense and security officials in order to build and strengthen a global network of Combating Terrorism (CbT) and Irregular Warfare (IW) practitioners.

Key Facts and Figures:

- In FY23, AFRICOM received $6.1M (FY22:$5.8M) in RDFP funded training for 237 (FY22: 166) students from 31 countries. FY23 served as the pilot year utilizing Irregular Warfare Center funding.
 - Top 5 recipient countries in FY23: Nigeria ($725K), Ghana ($633K), Morocco ($542K), Kenya ($404K), and Cameroon ($368K).
- Projected for FY24: $1.26M allocated by AFRICOM for direct use to total 25 countries, and an additional $3.21M received in the form of invitational seats to courses and seminars at Regional Centers and Schoolhouses.
- Highest enrollment courses: Program on Terrorism & Security Studies (18), Civ-Mil Response to Terrorism (13), College of International Security Affairs (12), Program on Terrorism & Security Studies (18), Legal Aspects of Defense Support of Civil Authorities (12), & Combatting Transnational Threats (12).

Issues: Although, generally well executed across the AOR, occasionally, new OSC/LES personnel need support with the specific RDFP nomination process.

Foreign Military Sales (FMS)

- AFRICOM Active FMS Cases: 845 = $15.8B
- Executable Case Lines: 10K+
- MO,TU,KE,NI, DJ: 482 Cases = $15.5B
- MO,TU: 315 Cases = $12B
- US Army Managed – 376 Cases = $5.1B
- US Air Force Managed – 194 Cases = $7.9B
- US Navy Managed – 125 case = $2.7B

Peacekeeping Operations (PKO) Account

Regional (Africa) PKO Programs

Africa Conflict and Stabilization Border Security (ACSBS): ACSBS enhances stability by strengthening sub-Saharan African partner governments' capacities to respond to conflict, fragility, and transnational threats. ACSBS engages primarily through defense sector reform and conflict stabilization efforts.

African Military Education Program (AMEP): Builds capacity of individual sub-Saharan African military education and training institutions. Through AMEP, the U.S. government supports curriculum development and/or instructor development, and minor equipment or related needs at partner nation military training institutions, national defense colleges, war colleges, staff colleges, pre-commissioning military academies, and non-commissioned officer academies. This program does not include infrastructure.

Africa Maritime Security Initiative (AMSI): Builds capacity of sub-Saharan African partners to enhance maritime safety and security.

Africa Regional Counterterrorism (ARCT): Sustains existing sub-Saharan African partner nation's counterterrorism capabilities funded by prior year FMF, TSCTP, PREACT or Somalia Peacekeeping Operations (PKO) funding, and Department of Defense (DoD) section 333/1206/2282/Counterterrorism Partnership Fund (CTPF) funds.

Countering Strategic Competitors (CSC): Supports efforts to counter strategic competitors, such as the Governments of Russia and China, in sub-Saharan Africa through military assistance.

Partnership for Regional East Africa Counterterrorism (PREACT): Supports East African partner countries and Mozambique with the political will to address near-term terrorism threats by building the institutional and operational capacities of military forces to defeat and degrade al-Shabaab, the Islamic State in Iraq and Syria (ISIS), and associated terrorist organizations while adhering to international humanitarian law and human rights norms.

Trans-Sahara Counterterrorism Program (TSCTP): Supports partner countries with the political will to address near-term counterterrorism threats by building the institutional and operational capacities of military forces to defeat and degrade terrorist groups operating in West and Central African states, while adhering to international humanitarian law and human rights norms. TSCTP PKO funds may also support valid counterterrorism requirements in littoral West African countries.

Bilateral PKO Programs

Somalia: Supports three objectives: 1) providing voluntary support for troop contributors to the military component of the African Union Transition Mission in Somalia (ATMIS), 2) supporting the development of the Somali National Army (SNA), and 3) supporting relevant civilian oversight institutions (e.g., the MoD). Past support has included equipment, training, advisory support, stipends (SNA and MOD only), infrastructure (camp construction and refurbishment of existing facilities), and aerial surveillance support. The Department is prohibited from providing additional logistics support in cases where such support is being provided through the UN Support Office for Somalia (UNSOS), as the United States supports UNSOS through assessed contributions.

Global PKO Programs

Global Defense Reform Program (GDRP): Assists partner nations to enhance security sector governance (SSG) and institutional capacity. This program provides support at the national, ministerial, and/or service levels to employ and sustain operational and strategic security sector capabilities that maintain stability and security in line with U.S. national interests effectively and responsibly. It also integrates the characteristics of strong SSG including the fundamental approach of local ownership; the core objectives of effectiveness and accountability; and holistic, political, and technical dimensions of reform. Project nominations for new projects are not being accepted for FY 2025.

Global Peace Operations Initiative (GPOI): Strengthens the effectiveness of UN and regional peace operations by enhancing partner countries' capacities and reinforcing UN and regional organizations' performance and accountability frameworks. These efforts promote international burden sharing by reinforcing partner country capabilities to generate, train, deploy, and sustain peacekeepers. Funds support partner countries' development and employment of critical mission capabilities, expanding the availability and operational effectiveness of units to fill mission requirements. Reinforcing U.S. peacekeeping policy, the program further focuses on a range of cross-cutting issues, including training on protecting civilians; improving peacekeeper conduct and discipline, including the prevention of sexual exploitation and abuse; improving the safety and security of peacekeepers; and promoting women's participation and gender integration in peace operations.

PKO PROGRAMMING – KEY PLANNING PRINCIPLES

- PKO programs have specific program objectives, legal requirements, and a robust proposal development cycle, including multi-year M&E mandates
- Programs are partner-driven and evidence-based; valid requirements are almost always “implementer agnostic”
- Capacity building and mil-to-mil are different, but goal is always to align competing organizational interests
- Leverage existing DoD subject matter expertise to inform State acquisitions
- Use mil-to-mil for assessments that can feed into proposal development
- State program managers work multiple efforts and implementers across the continent and have regional and programmatic expertise, including long-standing relationships with partners and can apply lessons learned to new projects

- 180 days (not in armed conflict) – Djibouti, Ghana, Mauritania, Morocco, Senegal, and Tunisia; Cable pending
- Written assurances needed by August 6 or suspend deliveries of lethal equipment
- Additional countries would need to provide assurances if receive lethal assistance in the future

“WHY IS STATE INVOLVED IN 333?”

- Concurrence and joint development and planning of programs is required by law in the 333 legislation
 - (1) concurrence in conduct of programs – the concurrence of the Secretary of State is required to conduct or support any program authorization by subsection (a)
 - (2) Joint Development and Planning of Programs – the Secretary of Defense and the Secretary of State shall jointly develop and plan any program carried out pursuant to subsection (a). In developing and planning a program...the Secretary of Defense and Secretary of State should jointly consider political, economic, diplomatic and historical factors, if any, of the foreign country that may impact the effectiveness of the program.

1. Define and document, such as through a MOU, a joint process that specifies when and how State should be involved in the planning of Section 333 projects, including timelines for State's review of concurrence packages.
2. DoD should establish guidance to support the joint process for planning of Section 333 projects.
3. State should establish guidance to support the joint process for planning of Section 333 projects.
4. State should ensure that the PM A/S, working with the FSI, improves political-military officers' and other relevant staff's access to, and awareness of, training on security cooperation authorities by, for example, encouraging staff to use DOD online training.
5. Develop a mechanism for ensuring that Section 333 project proposals include all elements required by DOD guidance.
6. Ensure DOD's congressional notifications for Section 333 projects include detailed information about partner nations' absorptive capacity and DOD's planning for capability sustainment.

8068 LESSONS LEARNED FROM STATE'S PERSPECTIVE

- 8068 was unexpected and proposals were not coordinated with State in advance of seeking formal concurrence
 - Proposals 'below the cutline' for 333 were moved up – problematic in some instances
 - Also new proposals State had never seen before
- 333 as the “default” vs flexible options for implementation
 - State recommends leveraging 8066 for additional personnel – bandwidth at Posts (and other places) is a huge hindrance to more programming
 - Utilize other operational or logistics support authorities, as applicable

FACTORS BEING CONSIDERED BY STATE IN ASSESSING WHETHER TO VALIDATE REQUIREMENTS:

- ☐ Supports current policies and strategies including SPCPS, BCAP or State policy considerations.
- ☐ Reasonable assurance of available DoD implementer (or contractor if State funding).
- ☐ Reasonable expectation partner commitment to mobilize personnel and resources.
- ☐ Considers the partner's absorptive capacity and OSC capacity.
- ☐ Proposed activities reflect the enterprise's best practices, to include M&E findings.
- ☐ DoD has the comparative advantage or State has declined to consider the proposal.
- ☐ Complement other assistance, is not duplicative, of activities that State is funding.
- ☐ For Advisors – proposal accounts for guidance from JSSAR Advisor 101 doc.

- STRWG model
- State will provide written feedback after RSWG to:
 - ✓ Memorialize the validation (or not) of proposed nominations
 - ✓ Provide feedback that should be included in SSCIs that must be addressed for State to concur
 - ✓ Identify select SSCIs where close coordination will be necessary to fulfill joint planning and development requirements
